

LAW ENFORCEMENT MESSAGE

Chief,

We found a great article on vehicle fires posted on Police1 by Lexipol. It may be something that you could use for Roll Call training?

The article was written by Vince Bettinazzi a battalion chief with the Myrtle Beach, South Carolina Fire Department.

Vehicle fires are common occurrences in the United States, with more than 170,000 such incidents occurring annually, per the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA).

As a police officer, you are likely to encounter more than a few vehicle fires during your career. What's more, you may be the first public safety member on the scene. So, what can you do for those few minutes prior to the fire department's arrival on the scene? Several factors can guide you in these critical moments.
