

LAW ENFORCEMENT MESSAGE

DANIEL'S LAW PORTAL OPENS TODAY, JULY 12TH

Beginning today, law enforcement officers, judges, prosecutors, and other persons covered by Daniel's Law may apply online to have their residential address redacted from certain public records. Agency leaders should discuss the provisions of Daniel's Law with their Municipal Attorneys.

Additional information can be found on the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, Office of Information Privacy Website which can be viewed HERE.

Agency leaders may also wish to review a publication from the New Jersey League of Municipalities regarding legislative action regarding Daniel's Law which can be viewed HERE.

If you have any questions, please contact your J.A. Montgomery Law Enforcement Risk Control Consultant.